JAVA/ C++ Software Engineer - Core

Location: Dubai

Description

Our Software Development team creates powerful trading tools, which facilitate the operation of a high-performance system, deployed in financial marketplaces around the world. The Core development role focuses on the design of our trading system's core order management protocol, managing internal message processing as well as connectivity to external trading destinations.

Requirements

Mastery of JAVA or C++ programming.
Extensive experience developing in a Linux environment.
Experience in distributed and/or highly concurrent systems is a plus.
Experience in low-latency systems and/or high transaction environments is a plus.
Experience with web technologies is a plus.
Experience with databases is a plus.Interest in trading and financial markets.
Enjoy working in a fast-paced, dynamic environment.
Excellent communication skills are required.