

JAVA Software Engineer - Strategy

Location: Dubai

Description

Our strategy development team is a highly focused group of extremely talented engineers. Their primary responsibility is to code innovative trading technology by developing and perfecting proprietary trading algorithms running on our high-performance, electronic trading platform. Responsibilities include improving the scalability, performance and efficiency of existing strategies, as well as collaborating with Trading Analysts code new strategies.

Job Qualifications

Strength in core JAVA programming, 3+ years of experience.

Strong mathematical aptitude; background in math, physics, or statistics is a plus.

Experience in distributed and/or highly concurrent systems is a plus.

Experience in low-latency systems and/or high transaction environments is a plus.

Interest in trading and financial markets.

Enjoy working in a fast-paced, dynamic environment. Excellent communication skills are required.